

Humanity I

Humanity I despise you.
You depress me,
with all your fakeness.
You make me sick,
with the lies you speak.
You make me feel anger.
I do not trust you humanity.

Humanity you make me sick.
You put others down,
only to keep hiding from yourself
and the ugly truth that lies behind you.
Lying only for self gain.
You believe you are normal,
and are stuck on the thought,
that everyone else is wrong
just for being different.

Humanity you are destroying yourself.
The only way to change,
is to have acceptance,
and respect.
Humanity it's time to wake up,
Humanity this is your last chance.
